

CRITERIA FOR PCAM'S ADVANCED COACHES

You must have:

- 400 documented coaching hours as defined by the ICF

--and--

- Coached 20 clients

--and--

- 100 hours of coach-specific training

In addition, you must meet at least two of the criteria below:

- Be a graduate of a coach training program accredited by the ICF
- Hold a credential from the ICF
- Be certified by another coach association or coach training program

Have made a significant contribution to the coaching profession (examples: Participated in PCAM's Empower Michigan outreach volunteer efforts, taken leadership roles in the mentor programs, power sessions, conference break-out sessions, or contributions outside of PCAM that benefited the coaching profession and brought recognition to coaching.

- Have received significant professional recognition in the coaching field
- Have demonstrated leadership in the coaching field.
- Have authored a coaching-related book published by a recognized publishing house.
- Have been recommended to us by an invited coach

[If you meet this criteria
click here to REQUEST AN INVITATION](#)